

"SUPERVISION CAMP"

3 days of student work in advanced phase of process-work study, working with clients under supervision of Ivan Verny, M.D. & Dipl. PW and Michal Wertheimer Shimoni, Dipl. PW

Opportunity to work intensely with different clients in “live mode” and have the work supervised and receive feedback. We will work in two separate (parallel) groups, each with one supervisor, or together.

Supervision camp 2018 is an open platform for the students from the Czech school of processwork, as well as for the students from Slovakia or other countries.

At the same time we invite wholeheartedly participants of the courses organized by IPOP, to join this event as clients. They may join for one day only, or longer, according to their preferences. Clients will have an opportunity to work on own topics as well as learn about processwork through observation of the work of the others.
